

RAUNDS MUSIC FESTIVAL

JAZZ WORKSHOP

Professional Jazz Musician, Richard Exall, will be leading a jazz/improvisation workshop in Raunds this May as part of the Raunds Music Festival.

The workshop will be held on Saturday 15th May 11.30 -2.30pm at the Saxon Hall in Raunds.

Workshop participants will then be invited to perform at the Festival's Jazz Cafe on Sunday 16th May

Included in the workshop will be improvisation exercises, musical games, rhythm and melody techniques, harmony and chord exercises, and will include a spontaneous group composition which will be performed at the Jazz Cafe. All participants will be invited to stay for the Jazz Café concert, which will commence after the Sunday performance. The workshop is suitable for musicians on all instruments of all standards (grade 3 and above), and of all ages.

Richard Exall is a member of The Chris Barber Band and has many years of experience teaching improvising and ensemble workshops at schools, colleges and universities throughout the country.

Places are limited to 20 and the deadline for booking a place is 1st May 2010. The session fee is £10 and includes a light lunch.
